

The following questions correspond with the Surviving the Presence of God sermon on Sunday, March 29. To listen to or watch this sermon, please visit grace360.org/sermons.

Leviticus 16; Hebrews 6-10

Conversation Starter: What was your favorite part of the sermon? What do you think it would have been like to be the priest on the Day of Atonement?

1. Last Sunday, we learned about the Mosaic covenant and how it applies to the potential we have today. Over the past week, what ways have you discovered you can thrive during the call to stay at home?
2. Read Leviticus 16:1-28. Why do you think such detailed and lengthy instructions were given to the priest (Aaron) on the Day of Atonement?
3. The Day of Atonement reminds God's people of the contrast between God's holiness and mankind's sinfulness. What comes to mind when you think of God's holiness? How do you think of your sin in relation to the nature of God?
4. Read Hebrews 10:11-12, 19-22. What differences do you see between this passage and the Day of Atonement passage in Leviticus?
5. Having gone before us, Jesus is now our "great priest." Knowing this, how do you daily live with "full assurance of faith"?
6. In the midst of our daily lives being interrupted by the effects of the new coronavirus and with a desire to become like Christ in all of life, what are a few ways you can express your gratefulness for Christ's atoning work this week?
