

The following questions correspond with the What Will Heaven be Like? sermon on Sunday, April 19. To listen to or watch this sermon, please visit grace360.org/sermons.

Revelation 21:1-7

1. Last Sunday, we learned about the certainty and security of our relationship with God. Over the past week, what are some ways this certainty has impacted your walk with God?
2. Read Revelation 21:1-7. What does this passage tell us about Heaven? How is Heaven described?
3. Is this picture of Heaven that John describes in Revelation similar to the way you often imagine Heaven? What are some similarities? Are there any differences?
4. Kevin Maurice mentioned three truths about Heaven: It will be new and real, we will have relationships, and we will experience freedom. What aspects of these three truths are exciting to you? What about them are you looking forward to?
5. Read 1 Thessalonians 4:13-17. What does this passage reveal about the hope we, as Believers, have? What does this passage mention about our relationships in Heaven?
6. Kevin mentioned we have only touched the surface of a study of Heaven! Come up with a plan this week to set aside time for studying Heaven in Scripture and imagining what Heaven will be like.
