

- 1) Last Sunday, we learned about how to live in light of our eternal home in Heaven. Over the past week, what steps were you able to take toward living with Heaven in mind?
- 2) Read Joshua 1:6-9. What commands does God give to Joshua in this passage?
- 3) Today we learned about God as Lord of all. Do you view God as Lord of your life? How should submitting to the Lordship of God effect your daily walk with God?
- 4) Matt Cassidy taught us the key to an abundant life with God is having the courage to obey. Is there a moment in your life where you courageously obeyed God? Share that story with your group.
- 5) We all have certain struggles that can hold us back from living courageously obedient to God. What typically holds you back from having the courage to obey?
- 6) Over this upcoming week, what is a step you can take toward becoming like Christ in all of life by living courageously obedient to God?
