

- 1) Last Sunday we learned about the kindness of God through 1 Samuel 12:22. Over the past week, were you able to set aside time to meditate on this verse? What have you learned about God or yourself through this verse?

- 2) Read 1 Samuel 17. What does this passage tell us about David? How is he described, and how is he different than everyone else in this passage?

- 3) David trusted in God and in God's power, which enabled him to lead in a Godly manner. What qualities do you think characterize a Godly leader?

- 4) Goliath was a giant who mocked the people of God and directed them away from trusting in Yahweh. We also face giants seeking to strain our relationship with God. What "giants" are you currently facing?

- 5) Read 1 Samuel 17:26 and 17:45-47. How does David respond to facing a giant? How can his response influence the way we should respond to the "giants" we face today?

- 6) Today we learned that David serves as a model of someone who's heart was synchronized with the heart of God, which empowered him to be a "giant killer." In becoming like Christ in all of life, what steps can you take this week to synchronize your heart with Gods?

Worship through Action: This week, talk with someone to help identify what "giant" you are currently facing. After identifying this, what is one step you can take to killing this giant and living in the abundant life of freedom that God has called us to?
