

Premarital Mentoring & Wedding Guidelines

Congratulations on your engagement and the decision you have made to enter into the covenant of marriage! We believe marriage is a sacred institution ordained by God between a man and a woman (Genesis 2), given to us as a gift (James 1:17) in order to display His greatness to the world (Matthew 5:14-16, Ephesians 5:22-33). Our desire at Grace Covenant Church is to help in any way we can to get you ready for your wedding day, and more importantly for your marriage, by equipping you to fulfill your wedding vows for life to the glory of God (1 Corinthians 10:31).

Whether we are providing you with premarital mentoring, a pastor to officiate and/or a venue to hold the ceremony, as the body of Christ we are primarily concerned with God being honored in the process (Colossians 3:17, 23-24). If you will be requesting that a Grace pastor officiates the ceremony and/or use of the church as your wedding venue, we will ask you to agree to and abide by the following biblical requirements.

Requirements

- Couples who are sexually involved with one another must agree to abstain until after their wedding (1 Thessalonians 4:3-7).
- Cohabiting couples will work with the Family Life Pastor on a biblical solution in their relationship. A cohabiting couple is one that is not married yet lives together and is sexually active.
- Couples must be “evenly yoked.” That is, they must either both be professing Christians or both be professing unbelievers. We will be unable to officiate and/or provide a venue for the wedding for a couple in which one professes to be a Christian and the other professes to be an unbeliever (2 Corinthians 6:14).
- Couples in which one or both individuals has been previously married will be encouraged to read our views on divorce and remarriage in our Sacredness of Marriage position paper and meet with the Family Life Pastor to share their story regarding this previous relationship.
- Couples wishing to have a pastor officiate and/or desire to use the church as a venue MUST participate in premarital mentoring. Couples who are unable to participate in Grace’s mentoring program can complete an approved program elsewhere. We strongly recommend a 6-month window prior to your wedding day to facilitate the mentoring.

If for any reason you have questions about these requirements or are uncertain about meeting them, we would love the opportunity to meet with you and discuss your concerns and, if needed, work with you to seek a biblical solution.

Please know that you do not have to be a member of Grace to take advantage of these ministry options and that each option has an individual cost associated with it. Please see below for detailed information on each of our offerings.

1) Premarital Mentoring Process

At Grace, our goal is to help couples prepare effectively for marriage by examining themselves both as individuals and as a couple. We believe that this can best take place in a focused, personalized setting, which is why we use a mentorship model. We will pair you with a mentor couple who will meet with you on a regular basis and take you through the premarital curriculum as well as share biblical insights on God's design and goal for marriage and how His Word equips and empowers you to live out your vows for life. Your mentoring couple can get to know you on a personal level and can tailor topics and discussions toward the specific needs that you have or want to address in your relationship. You will also receive a complete analysis of the two assessment tests you take, which identify temperaments and tendencies that you bring to the relationship and provide insight into how to relate better to your future spouse.
